Welcome to the Prostitution Licensing Authority

Our Purpose

To regulate prostitution in Queensland by implementing the Act.

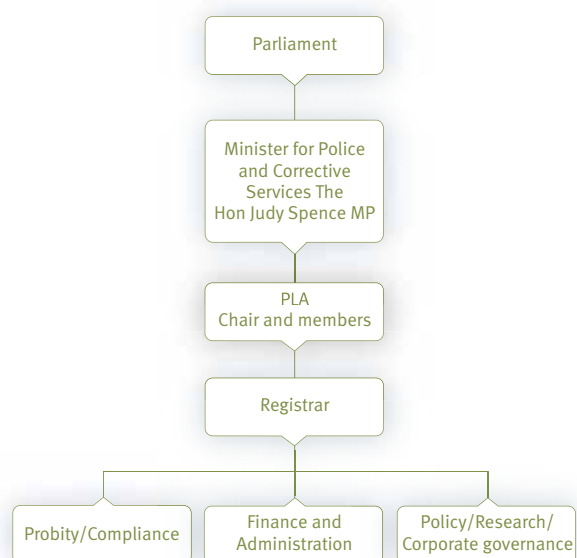

Reporting Structure and Organisation

The PLA employs one part-time and eight full-time officers under the Public Service Act 1996 to support the work of the PLA. Staff of the PLA are managed by the Registrar, who in turn reports to the PLA. The PLA reports to the Minister for Police and the Parliament.

We administer one non-departmental Output:

1. Brothel licensing and monitoring prostitution through licensed brothels.

■ Figure 1: PLA Organisational Structure

The PLA

The Act establishes the PLA and prescribes its membership, which must include:

- the Chair – an independent, respected member of the community nominated by the Premier
- the Commissioner of Police, or a police officer of at least the rank of superintendent nominated by the Commissioner
