Prostitution Licensing Authority

Welcome to the Prostitution Licensing Authority

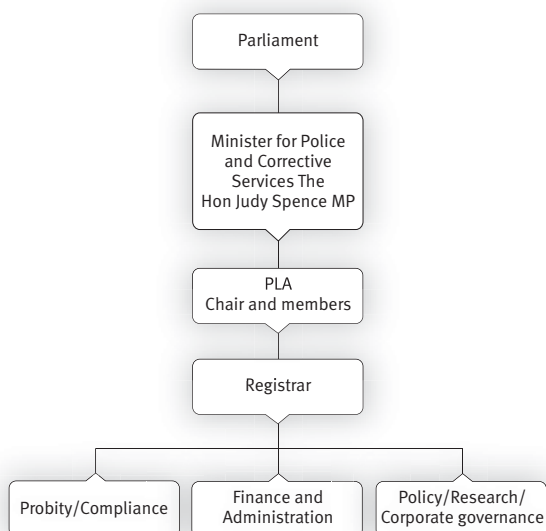

Our Purpose

To regulate prostitution in Queensland by implementing the Act.

Reporting Structure and Organisation

The PLA employs eight full-time officers under the Public Service Act 1996 to support the work of the PLA. Staff of the PLA are managed by the Registrar, who in turn reports to the PLA. The PLA reports to the Minister for Police and the Parliament.

■ Figure 1: PLA organisational structure

We administer one non-departmental output:

1. Brothel licensing and monitoring prostitution through licensed brothels.

The PLA

The Act establishes the PLA and prescribes its membership, which must include:

- the Chair – an independent, respected member of the community nominated by the Premier
- the Commissioner of Police, or a police officer of at least the rank of superintendent nominated by the Commissioner
- the Chairperson, or the Assistant Commissioner, Crime, of the CMC
- a doctor who has at least five years’ experience in community health
- a lawyer who has been admitted for at least five years and has knowledge of or experience in administrative law, company law or criminal law
- a senior representative of the Local Government Association of Queensland (LGAQ)
- two persons who, in the Minister’s opinion, are qualified to represent community interests.

Role of the PLA

The PLA decides applications for brothel licences and managers' certificates. In addition, the PLA is responsible for:

- monitoring the provision of prostitution through licensed brothels
 - conducting probity investigations into licence and certificate applicants
 - conducting disciplinary inquiries in relation to licensees and approved managers
 - disciplining licensees and managers
 - receiving complaints about prostitution
 - liaising with and assisting the police service
 - liaising with local authorities
 - collecting fees under the Act
 - informing relevant government departments and agencies about possible offences that are detected while carrying out its functions
- advising the Minister about ways of promoting and coordinating programs that –
 - (i) promote sexual health care; or
 - (ii) help prostitutes to leave prostitution; or
 - (iii) divert minors and other vulnerable persons from prostitution; or
 - (iv) raise awareness in prostitutes, judicial officers, police, community workers and the community about issues relating to prostitution;
 - advising the Minister about the development of codes of practice for licensed brothels
 - approving advertising for prostitution
 - maintaining a licence and certificate register
 - providing support to the independent assessor.
